

JUMP CUT THEATER
PRESENTS

Pittsburgh Film Kitchen

February 9, 2021

Tonight's Film Kitchen is titled

It's that feeling which makes the heart flutter and the soul reminds us what it's like to be alive. The feeling that makes us care about others more than ourselves. It's a feeling that defies age and time. Also, Valentine's day is on Sunday, but our show is about so much more than that.

Describing the show in Kitchen terms, think of it as a cross between a romantic box of chocolates and a romantic charcuterie board.
