

On the menu for June, Film Kitchen is serving up ice cold scares and hearty summer laughs with

Macabre Manor.

Macabre Manor, a workplace mockumentary and zombie apocalypse series, is the story of a local TV station still operating after a zombie pandemic has overtaken the world. The series centers on the late-night scary movie show Macabre Manor host Doctor Macabre, his show's rivalry with the morning news staff, and the zombie apocalypse that is the world's new normal.

Pittsburgh artists Jamie Meyers (Creator), David Kost (Creator/Actor), Zachary Markel (Creator/Actor), and Michael Pschirer (Producer) took their inspiration from zombie films and late-night TV horror movies series such as Chiller Theater to create Macabre Manor.

Screening List

---

- 1) Episode 1: Dani's First Day (11 min)
  - 2) Episode 2: The Confection Menace (15 min)
  - 3) Concept Excerpt: The Original Skit (2 min)
  - 4) Episode 3: Ridin' with Relich (16 min)
-

Artists will attend the screening for a virtual discussion with hosts Matthew R. Day (Film Kitchen) and Steven Haines (Jump Cut)!

Mark your calendars!
Next Pittsburgh Film Kitchen

Tuesday, July 13, 2021 at 7pm
on Jump Cut's Twitch channel

Anyone can submit completed works on film or video for the series.

*For more information or to submit work, email host and curator
Matthew R. Day at: matthewday@jumputcuttheater.org*

Sign up for Jump Cut Theater's newsletter to stay up to date on all Jump Cut events!

